

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HISPANIC PSYCHIATRY

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HISPANIC PSYCHIATRY
Sheraton Waikiki: Honolulu, Hawaii
MAY 14, 2011
CONFERENCE AGENDA

Evidence-Based Treatments for Latinos with Schizophrenia, Mood & Impulse Disorders and ADHD

- |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12:00 – 1:00 | Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1:00 – 1:30  | IntroductionMaria Oquendo MD, President – ASHPAlfredo Cia MD, President-Elect - APALPedro Ruiz MD, President - World Health OrganizationImportance of Evidence Based Treatments for Latino CommunitiesJeronimo Saiz Ruiz MD, PhD; President - Spanish PsychiatricAssociationThe Role of Quality Treatments in Psychiatry |
| 1:30 – 2:15  | Alex Kopelowicz MD, David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLAMultifamily Groups to Improve Adherence in Latinos with SchizophreniaDiscussant: Dr. Edgar Belfort                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2:15 – 3:00  | Maria Aranda PhD, USC School of Social WorkProblem Solving Therapy for Diabetic Latino Elderly with DepressionDiscussant: Dr. Alejandro Córdova Castañeda                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 3:15 – 4:00  | Lisa Fortuna MD, University of Massachusetts Medical SchoolCBT for Latino Adolescents with PTSD and Co-morbid ConditionsDiscussant: Dr. Enrique Camarena Robles                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 4:00 – 4:45  | Carlos Blanco MD, Columbia UniversityCognitive-Motivational Behavior Therapy for Pathological GamblingDiscussant: Dr. Carlos Caban                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 4:45 – 5:30  | Roberto Lewis Fernandez MD, Columbia UniversityIntegrating Motivational Interviewing and Pharmacotherapy: A CulturalAdaptation for Latinos with Major Depression and Co-Morbid ConditionsDiscussant: Dr. Wazcar Verduzco Fragoso                                                                                                                 |
| 5:30 – 6:15  | Jose Bauermeister, PhD, University of Puerto RicoAttention Deficit Disorders And Other Externalizing DisordersDiscussant: Dr. Silvia Gaviria                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 6:30–8:30    | Cocktail Reception and Poster Session                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |